

Photographs will be taken at the event.

The photographs will be used solely for the University's public relations work and may be published in print and online media. By participating in the event you are giving your consent that photographs, on which you might appear, shall be used by the University for public relations purposes. In the case of photographs, which focus on individual persons, the persons concerned have the right and the opportunity at any time to advise the photographer that they do not wish to be photographed and/or that the photograph should not be published. Consent includes agreement to options for downloading the photographs from our websites.

Legal background: Where photography or filming is carried out in public places and where persons are accidentally included in the shot, these persons are deemed to be accessories and are not obliged to give their consent to the publication of the photographs or film shots. This also applies to photographs or film shots of gatherings of people, which take place in public places or are open to the public. Individual images of persons in the crowd do not fall under press freedom to publish images.