The Centre for Language Studies, the Department of English and American Studies and the “DAAD Freundeskreis” of Paderborn University will be holding an interculinary Christmas get-together.

In a relaxed and festive atmosphere we’ll get in the mood for Christmas. We will try international finger food and serve tea in a relaxed atmosphere. Please join us and get the chance to learn about different traditions and exchange recipes.

We will also host an interculinary quiz this year.

You will also have the possibility to find a partner for Tandem-language-learning. Friends and family are welcome, too (please let us know how many will come when you register).
