* All information provided regarding vocational qualifications must be supported by certified copies of certificates, e.g. vocational training certificate, apprenticeship diploma, master craftsman’s certificate.

 Employment references, certificates of employment, employment contracts and salary statements, proof of hours per week (for part-time work), business registration/de-registration documents and proof of income (for self-employment)

 Corresponding confirmation from the relevant workplace for the period specified

* Child’s birth certificate, relevant proof of care, e.g. care level assessment
I hereby confirm that I am aware of my requirement to prove knowledge of two foreign languages for the teacher training programme by the time that I register for my bachelor’s thesis. Exception: For vocational school teacher training, proof of one foreign language is sufficient where a vocational subject is studied.

I acknowledge that any queries or any requests for any additional documents will be sent to the e-mail address provided on this form. I therefore undertake to check this e-mail account regularly until the application process is complete.

Please complete and sign this form and return it by post, together with all the necessary supporting documents*, by the relevant deadline to: Universität Paderborn, Studierendensekretariat, Warburger Str. 100, 33098 Paderborn.
Applications not received by the Registrar’s Office by the relevant deadline or that are incomplete will not be considered.

Consultation sessions with faculty advisors

Applicants are required to attend a consultation session offered by the university to determine whether they are lacking any of the necessary prior specialised or methodological knowledge and to provide them with information about how they can compensate for any such lacking knowledge, assessing their potential study success rate. A separate consultation session is required for each desired degree programme/course.

Assessment of the relevant faculty representative for the faculty in question

This assessment form must be attached to the request for verification of the entry requirements for applicants with vocational qualifications and is required for each degree programme or course.
